“ Our prayers and sympathy to all the family and friends of this beautiful woman. There is no doubt that she had completed her Christmas preparations in advance of her sudden passing in Dassel.
I surmise that with just four days before the Heavenly celebration of his son's birthday, our Lord knew who he could count on to oversee the completion of those final details in heaven.
Her warmth, caring, and love will forever be a part of her legacy. May each of us find comfort with the memories created during her extra ordinary life.
We will again meet and embrace in a better place.
Lord we ask that you hold this special woman close until that time.
