Obituary for A. Lorraine Settergren

A. Lorraine Settergren, 100, died Saturday, July 20, at Glen Oaks in New London, Minnesota. Celebration of Life will be August 31 at Zion Lutheran Church of Litchfield at 10:30 a.m. Burial will be in Dassel Cemetery.

Born July 2, 1919, in Dassel, Minnesota, to Selma (Nystrom) and Oscar E. Dahlgren, she worked as a bookkeeper for her husband Roy Settergren when he owned and operated the Settergren Oil Co. of Monticello and later Hayfield Farm Service in Hayfield, Minnesota. After she retired, they moved to Litchfield in 1977. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, gardening indoor and outdoor plants, canning fruits and vegetables, and volunteering in the community.

She is survived by two daughters Gwen (and Patrick) Hood of New London and Darlene (and Carl) Haberstick of Huron, SD; a son, Dr. Curtis (and Mia) Settergren of Billings, MT; seven grandchildren, Trevor Dodge, Kristina (and Todd) Wodash, Carl (and fiancée Kayla) Haberstick III, Roy (and Luz) Haberstick, Dr. Noah (and Jackie) Settergren, Hanah (and Zach) Heser, Sonia Settergren; and five great grandchildren, Leo, Finn, and Jasper Heser, Bjorn Wodash, and Alma Haberstick-Pena; and one sister Doris Bollman of Dassel.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, many in-laws, and several nieces and nephews.
