“ This is from Lloyd Weber-- I'm going to miss her always. We had many great times together. I went ten years without a mom (ages 5-15) it was a dramatic change for me and I grew to love her as my mother for 54 years of life with her.

“ It was always a treat to visit with Aileen, she was so active and involved in family matters. I loved that she always had a kind word and remembered who I was. The beautiful garden she and Marcus kept and the wonderful desserts Aileen made were always a treat. She may have had a rough life but her graciousness always shown through. Rest in Peace dear Auntie and thanks for the memories!
