Arthur Harris Miller was born on January 3, 1922, in Cokato, Minnesota to Charles and Ellen Miller. Harris attended Dassel Public Schools. He served in the US Army from 1942 to 1943.

On July 4, 1943, Harris was united in marriage to Marlyce Abrahamson in Washington. They lived in California for a short time. While there Harris worked in the shipyards. They moved back to Dassel where they bought a farm near Spring Lake and shortly after that bought the farm that they resided at until they entered Cokato Manor.

Harris passed away on April 22, 2014, at Abbott Northwestern Hospital at the age of 92 years, 3 months, and 18 days. He was a lifelong farmer starting in the early years with horses. Besides farming he also worked in the seed corn business for C.J. Peterson and Payco Seeds.

Harris enjoyed hunting, fishing, watching sports, and polka dancing. He was a lifelong member of the Gethsemane Lutheran Church in Dassel.

Harris is survived by his sons, Darrel (Ruth) of Cokato, Steven (Pat) of Dassel, four grandsons, Branden (Anna) of Rochester, Jereme of Dassel, Craig (Jessica) of Hutchinson, and Bo (Stacy) of Hutchinson, six great grandchildren, Lee, Jae, Emily, Riley, Brinley, and Morgan.

Harris was preceded in death by his wife, Marlyce and his parents.
