“ I am so sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Carol was an oasis for my mom, Iona Olson, and our friend and neighbor Ruby Lien. They were both teachers and had a standing appointment with Carol for years and years. They always looked so forward to this time and I believe they considered it a much needed pampering after teaching all week. They both loved their work but it is stressful and their time with Carol was a de-stresser for them. It was not just the pampering but the friendship that developed that they cherished. Carol was a gift to them. God bless you and I thank Him for the blessing she was!
