Carolyn "Chris" Koeneker

February 28, 1938 ~ July 11, 2022 (age 84)

Chris Koeneker (84), nee Carolyn Christenson, loving wife, mother, grandmother and sister, passed away suddenly on Monday, July 11. Chris grew up on a farm in Dassel, Minnesota. While attending the University of Minnesota, she met and married Franz Koeneker. The two shared life together for 63 years.

In 1969, the Koenekes adopted Colorado as their home. Once her children were in school, Chris worked in the education system at Goddard Jr High School. She later pursued a career as a travel consultant, ultimately creating her own business through Travel Counselors in Littleton, CO.

Chris loved music, travel, exercise and family. Her greatest legacy is the strong Christian faith that she lived out and passed on to her children and grandchildren. She lived a life of gratitude and generosity.

She is survived by her husband, children Andrea (John) Dikeou of Denver, CO, Allison (Mark) Evans of Franklin, TN, Adrienne (Juan Morales) Koeneke of Los Angeles, CA, and Alan (Michelle) Koeneke of Durham, NC. She leaves behind grandsons Markus, Mikael, Antonio and Diego and siblings Rosalie Haglund, Mae Ruotsinoja, Daniel Christenson, Lowell Christenson, and Sharon Winfield.

Memorial contributions may be made to St Andrew United Methodist Church music program.

A Service of Death and Resurrection for Carolyn "Chris" Elizabeth Koeneke will be held on this coming Monday, July 18, 2022, at 2:00 p.m. at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, 9203 S. University Blvd., Highland's Ranch, CO, 80126. The service will be broadcast via livestream and can be viewed at <https://www.gostandrew.com/resources/livestreaming/>.
