

Hazel Culver O'Conner

March 1, 1942 - December 26, 2025

Hazel Culver O'Connor, age 83, of Hutchinson, formerly of Minneapolis, died Friday, December 26, 2025, at Harmony River Living Center in Hutchinson.

The Johnson Funeral Home in Dassel is in charge of arrangements.

Hazel Culver O'Connor, the daughter of Jean and Betty (Ramey) Culver was born on March 1, 1942, in Portland, Oregon. Hazel grew up in the Motley area and after graduating from high school then attended the University of Minnesota where she obtained an undergraduate degree in psychology. Hazel spent some time in Alaska before moving back to Motley.

Hazel worked for a few years as a counselor before being employed as a librarian for the Minneapolis Public Library.

Hazel was united in marriage to Vincent O'Conner at the Church of St. Bridget in North Minneapolis. Together they made their home in North Minneapolis. In 2022, Hazel moved to Hutchinson where she has since resided.

Hazel loved to spend time outdoors or relaxing with an enjoyable book.

She is survived by her children, Timothy (Lisa) Wettstein of Hutchinson, and Krista (Rick) Ottino of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and two grandchildren,

Rebecca Wettstein and Morgan Wettstein.

Hazel was preceded in death by her husband, Vincent, and her parents, Jean and Betty Culver.
