“ Dear Dave and Stew:

It started at a toy show many, many years ago and developed into a warm friendship. From the Fairgrounds to Mystic to Mille Lacs to Jewish delis and many phone conversations imixed in we became almost family with your wonderful mom.

With warmest memories, Marilyn and Rich

“ When I think about my aunt Izzy I conjure ...

—Christmas day. Her awesome candy cane cookies.

—Mom, dad, Punk and Izzy card games. Cigarettes. Coffee. I loved hearing their laughter and good natured jabs as they played Hearts.

—When she was my babysitter. Mom would drop me off on her way to work. I must've been four. She treated me like a daughter.

— Steve putting me on his handlebars and biking to Brooklyn Center. We stopped at Izzy's to visit. She replenished us with lemonade.

—The Dells. Every spring and fall for a number of years, the Hansen siblings and their families descended on the Dells. Some of my best daily memories.

Izzy belonged in the 'adults that don't scare me' category. That's as good as love to a Hansen child.

She was a wonderful, good natured and loving aunt.

“ Izzy was a wonderful aunt. When our family moved from Hutchinson to Brooklyn Park we were fortunate that Punk and Izzy lived so close. We shared Christmas Day for years, had Izzy as a genial babysitter (and, later, babysat for Dave and Stew) and spent many nights at their Brooklyn Center house where non-stop laughter and cigarette smoke would pour out of the kitchen as the adults played cards. Izzy was a kind, tolerant fixture in our young lives. She was the last of the Hansen elders and with her passing a generation is retired.
