KAY JOANN HENDRICKSON

Kay Joann (Sarkinen) Hendrickson, age 51, died on Monday, April 16, 2018, surrounded by family at her home in Kingston, MN.

Kay was born November 17, 1966, in Vancouver, WA to Robert & Patricia Sarkinen. She grew up in Brush Prairie, WA and graduated from Prairie High School in 1985 and later attended Clark College. She worked in the medical field, most recently employed at the St. Cloud Hospital in the Cancer Care ward as a Patient Care Assistant.

Kay married Glen Hendrickson on August 19, 1990 in Brush Prairie, WA. They made their home in Buffalo, MN, before moving to Washington in 1992. They returned to Kingston, MN in 2010.

Kay was a lifelong member of the Old Apostolic Lutheran Church. She loved her children and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

Kay is survived by her husband Glen; two sons: Daniel of Maple Grove, MN, Blake & Madeline of Dassel, MN; daughter Nina at home; and grandson Levi. She is also survived by her mother Pat; siblings: Larry & Christy, Connie, Kent & Tina, Jack & Jill, Kurt & Angelina, all of Brush Prairie, WA, Karen & Eric Rivers of Elk River, MN, Jane & Jeremy Lindberg of Battle Ground, WA; and Glen's parents, Daniel & Shirley Hendrickson of Kingston, MN.

She was preceded in death by her father, her brother Wally, and grandparents Walter & Alice Ek and Olaf & Aune Sarkinen.

Funeral services will be Saturday April 21st at 2:00pm at Old Apostolic Lutheran Church of Kingston, 70617 280th St. Dassel, MN. The internment will be held at the Swan Lake Cemetery following the service. The visitation will be held Friday from 6:00-8:00pm at the church
