“ I had Kyle in my class at the ALC this last year, and he was always a pleasure to have. I'm so sorry for your lost. I've been praying nonstop for your family, and all others that knew this bright young man. This picture is from the night if the ALC banquet. I hope you find hope and comfort in the Lord.

Revelation 21:4

"...and he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will no longer be any death, there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain, the first things have passed away."

What a glorious day that will be.

“ This is my first memory of Kyle. His first day on the job and he was so tired as we were heading home for the day. From that day on it never failed he'd fall asleep the moment we hit the highway home. I always called him and sael my sleeping beauties (they secretly loved this nickname I'm sure). He will forever be missed and hold a great spot in the hearts of those he's worked with. Prayers to Dave and the family during this time.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all, Kyle's family....may your faith and treasured memories sustain you now and in the days to come. I so delighted in Kyle's dry sense of humor and his straightforwardness during his years at DCHS!
