“To the loving family of Lois Mae.....was saddened to read this news. Lois Mae's sister, Odessa Forsman was a very dear friend of my family..therefore that is how we met her, Eldon and all the "kids". She was always so happy and loving to all, her smile was what I remember most, oh and her hugs were so special. May you find comfort in the memories of this wonderful lady that I know were made, as i also have those memories and relived some of them today when I read this news. God's blessings to each of you and you say goodbye to your mentor and loving mom, grandma and great grandma and friend.
