Loren Albert Olson, the son of Willard Albert and Mary Louise (Hundley) Olson, was born on January 22, 1956, in Hillsboro, Oregon. He grew up in the Hillsboro area and attended school at Midhigh in Hillsboro. Loren was baptized and confirmed in the Christian faith.

When he was 31, Loren suffered a brain aneurysm and after his recovery moved to the Cokato area to be close to his family.

Loren was an adventurous person- He had worked at the Grand Canyon, the ARC in Oregon and for numerous years had worked at the Norseman and later Daniels in Cokato. He loved to listen to music, watch DVDs, he collected antique posters, was an avid Beetles fan and enjoyed spending time with his family.

He is survived by his siblings, Donna (Paul Prestidge) Portillo of Buffalo, Betty

Olson of Cokato, and Billy Olson of Cokato, several nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Willard and Mary.
