Letting Go

The angels gathered near your bed,
So very close to you
For they knew all of the things that you were going through,

I thought about so many things,
I tightly held your hand,
Oh, how I wished that you were strong and healthy once again;

But your eyes were looking homeward
To a place beyond the sky,
Where God will hold you always,
It was time to say goodbye;
I struggled with my selfish thoughts - - for I wanted you to stay
So we could walk and talk again,
Like we did - - just yesterday;

But God still knows what's best
And I knew God loved you so
So I gave you life's greatest gift;
The gift of letting go.

Our heartfelt condolences to you. Mark was a good next door neighbor. We will miss him. We enjoyed our chats as our docks on the lake were next to each other.
May the Lord comfort you and give you His peace during this difficult time. Edith, Keith and Jan*
