“ Galen and Family, Our love, sympathy and prayers are with you, Galen, and your families.
Pam was with the Lundeen/Hagglund household a lot during high school days and was always fun to have around.
Time passes and with our growing families, we aren't able to see each other and the circle of family and friends seems to draw us apart.
God will be with all of you giving you His love, strength and courage for each new day.
