“ My dearest daughter, Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. Your smile, love of animals and love for your family. Thank you for that last visit home and the chance to say I love you. Your memory will live forever in the hearts of everyone that loves you. The day your soul went to heaven mine was broken. The peices all shattered and torn. I mourn the things I never got to do with you, the memories I never got to make and the memories I have.I wished you could have seen how wonderful you are. Your strength, courage, beauty and hope. I know you are in heaven where you feel no pain and free of life's turmoil.I wish you could see how many people care about you, how many people you have helped. I know my heart will never be the same, it will always be missing you. I am learning to live without you earthly body. My comfort come from the bible. Knowing some day we will meet again in heaven. Until than my heart will alway have a piece missing. Love you always. Gina, step mom
