“ To the entire Rossman and Myllykangas families, My sincere thoughts to you, hearing about Sam. I have not seen Sam since the days of him playing basketball for the Kimball Cubs. I watched him play basketball all through his school years. He was a great rebounding force inside for the cubs. So sorry to hear he is gone at such a young age.

“ Sam was like a brother to me. Our birthday's were 5 days apart. With his passing I feel like a piece of me died with him. I know he is no longer suffering and he is flying with angels and watching over all of us. I called him my big "little" brother even though we were only a year apart. He always made me laugh and cry and smile and always asked about my daughter with her surgeries. May you rest in Peace Sam I will always love my big little brother with all my heart and soul.

“ It hurts knowing you are gone, but I know you are no longer in pain and watching over all of your family as well as all your friends. Including those you never got to meet in person, before God called you home. I miss you everyday, but I carry you with me in my heart always, because you will be my true twin for eternity. I hope you can hear me in heaven talking to you everyday. I feel you with me, and when I become sad or stressed, I feel you tell me breathe it will be ok. I love and miss my forever friend.
