Sara Jane Settergren, the daughter of Kevin Settergren and Bethann (White) McGuire, was born on November 6, 1988, in Hutchinson, Minnesota. Sara was baptized in the Lutheran faith at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran Church in Darwin. She attended summer bible school when she was little at Lake Jennie Evangelical Covenant Church, rural Dassel. Sara graduated from Litchfield High School in 2007, where she had been on the honor roll.

Sara was employed at Spectralytics Inc. in Dassel for several years. She enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her father, who was an important part of her life, and she had a close relationship with him. She was an avid crafter and had an eye for decorating, scrapbooking, decorating vases, and reading. She was an avid Disney fan and enjoyed watching Disney movies. She could often be found going to craft stores or hanging out with cousins and spending time with family for holidays and get togethers. She loved to go out for dinner at the King's Wok Restaurant with Phyllis Willhite, who became a second mother to Sara.

She is survived by her mother, Bethann McGuire of Litchfield, her sister, Rachel Settergren of Litchfield, uncles, Ken (Carman) Settergren of Litchfield, Richard (Jean) Settergren of Hutchinson, and James Settergren of Litchfield, aunt, Alyce Catherman of North Carolina, and her fathers, special friend, Darcy Schmitz of Litchfield. She is also survived by numerous cousins and other relatives.

She was preceded in death by her father, Kevin Settergren on December 4, 2021, and her paternal and maternal grandparents.
